Good Practice Ideas

Cash book

- To record any transactions made (i.e. money paid in to bank, checks drawn, etc.). Recommendation is to use a computer application for this. Currently using Intuit Quicken to track transactions.

Paying bills

- Bill should normally be paid within 14 days in order to maintain goodwill to the club or organization's creditors. It is also just as important to pay volunteers any out of pocket expenses.
- No payment should be made without written documentation or invoice. Authorization for paying more than $200 (or amount identified in the Club Constitution) for any particular expense requires approval from Treasurer and President.

Collecting monies

- Always keep monies separate from personal money. It is a good idea to deposit any monies received as soon as possible.

Invoicing

- It is good policy to send out invoices to collect money where possible (e.g. ECG ground rental, PDCF expense, etc.)
