2016/17 Rugby Season

The new season is upon us, and may we take this opportunity to wish our 1st XV under the stewardship of Robert Baillie and Captained by Andrew Welsh the very best of luck in the league campaign in East Regional Division 1.

Our Rugby Club would not function or even exist if it were not for you and your fellow club members. Without your continued, membership fees, custom and side line support we would not be able to manage the rugby club on your behalf.

We continue to appreciate your membership fees, and hope you can encourage others to join us in our Rugby adventure. The new membership booklet is available both in print at the rugby club, and electronically on our website and Facebook group.

As well as our 1st XV, we intend to resurrect our 2nd XV and support our social XV on the senior side of the club. Our Youth sides go from strength to strength, as demonstrated with two of our junior players reaching the lofty heights of representing Scotland. Congratulations again Lucas and Sula, as always, you make us #ProudtobeRoss !

As ever, we are keen to recruit some new volunteers. From Primary 1 coaches and supervisors, kitchen helpers, event organisers, everyone in our club can play a role in making every team, and player a rugby success.

We also look forward to helping our sister hockey club, Ross High Ladies Hockey Club in achieving their aims and goals. As well as hosting our friends from Merewether HS, (Newcastle, Australia) and Markham RFC (Wales) in 2017.

Keep a keen eye on Twitter (@RossHighRFC) and our Ross High RFC Facebook group for more information about upcoming events, and how you can get involved.

Why not download the Ross High Rugby TeamAPP app for your phone, and keep bang up to date with fixtures, events and the club online shop. Did we mention you can order your NEW 1st XV replica strip online now, at a significantly cheaper price than most rugby strips!

Lots to be getting on with, not least our upcoming preseason friendlies against Trinity RFC (Sat 13th Aug, 3pm) and Duns RFC (Sat 20th Aug 3pm) both at home on the Ross High Playing Fields.

Our league campaign gets underway on Saturday 3rd September at home against Hawick Harlequins RFC (3pm), with local rivals Dunbar RFC & North Berwick RFC on our fixture card, it promises to be an exciting and tough season.

So make haste, get your yourself off to a flying start by collecting your membership card with the 1st Fixtures on it, making sure your down for every tackle, scrum, ruck, try and conversion!

See you on the side line, and in the club house, Ross High RFC Committee.
